FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Robert Palmer and Associates Growth Calls for New Senior Tax Accountant

FORT MILL, SC (Feb. 22, 2008)—Continuing expansion, Robert Palmer and Associates located in Baxter’s Market Street in Fort Mill, S.C., has appointed Tiffany Burke as their Senior Tax Accountant.

Attaining this new position, Burke will be in charge of tax preparation of individual and corporate returns. Other responsibilities include: keeping firm current on all new tax regulations, internal tax compliance and small business accounting and reporting.

Burke has eight years of experience in the financial industry. After working in uptown Charlotte for the past two years, she was anticipating the transition to Fort Mill.

“The working environment is very hands-on,” said Burke. “With an emphasis on providing superior personal customer service, I feel like I’m making a difference in our client’s lives.”

With tax season in full swing, Robert Palmer and Associates have been working nonstop to provide clients with the needed assistance for tax preparation and filing. “Joining the firm during this time, I just hit the ground running and have been going ever since,” said Burke.

About Robert Palmer & Associates:

Robert Palmer and Associates serves the Fort Mill and surrounding area with full accounting services while providing financial solutions. Offering small business consultation, bookkeeping, tax and payroll services, RPA focuses on providing their clients with success and financial security within their business and home. They are a “one-stop shop” for the small business entrepreneur with experience in business plan development, cost accounting, GAAP, not-for-profit accounting, personal and business tax preparation, budgeting, cash flow management and commonly used financial systems. RPA is set apart not only by their CPA certification (NC, SC) and vast expertise, but also by the personal service they give their clients.
